To whom it may concern,

The purpose of this letter is to bestow as much positive accolades as possible for Richard Young and Dave Cerrone. For many years Richard and I have worked together on political and non-political events and functions. Richard is always prepared for any and all situations. He takes command when needed and works with others without any condescension or belittling of character. In this past election, Richard and his partner Dave Cerrone were the catalyst to my victory. Their First Tuesday program worked as advertised.

The First Tuesday concept was first introduced to me and my fellow candidates in early May of 2007. Mr. Young laid out what his program could do to enhance each and every candidate's chance for victory. He answered any and all questions during the next six months. When called upon to explain or train volunteers they were prompt and easy to work with. In the past three election cycles our party has lost three Freeholder races. With the help of Richard's professionalism and his First Tuesday program, I was able contact and encourage more voters to support our ticket. I can thank Rich and Dave for the extraordinary turnout in last November's election. I would and will encourage any person seeking political office to use this system to enhance their chances of victory!

In closing, if you are a candidate for any kind of political office, I encourage you to contact First Tuesday in November to ensure you and your running mates have every angle covered come Election Day. If I may be of further assistance, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Joseph McDevitt
